Reminiscence of 6th Annual Reunion

Statement of Audit 83rd Infantry Division Ass'n Sept. 25, 1952

On September 25, 1952, in Pittsburgh, Pa., the records of the 83rd Infantry Division Association were audited, pertinent to the cash receipts and related bank deposits, and to the cash disbursements and their accounting thereof. The bank balance as shown on the depositor's statement was in agreement with these records, both as to deposits and disbursements.

A tally check was made of memberships attended at the annual convention in Columbus, Ohio on Aug. 21-23, 1952 and annual dues collected thereby, and the deposit of these funds that were in excess of expenses paid was recorded August 25, 1952 in full.

A. A. SKIRBUNT,
Auditor, Cleveland, Ohio.

REVIEW OF PAST CONVENTION ACTIVITIES by Rocco Catalfamo, Editor.

We who had the opportunity and pleasure to attend the past convention in Columbus want to express to the Convention Committee, headed by Robert McGonagle, our thanks for the wonderful program they gave us. Much effort and enthusiasm was shown on their part.

THURSDAY was spent in registration and meeting the fellows. Thursday night the association gave a free cocktail party for the members and their guests. The party proved a great success and a good time was had by each and every one. The evening was spent renewing old friendships and making new acquaintances. The usual line was DO YOU REMEMBER and as always was followed by an incident occurring during a portion of their service in the division.

FRIDAY: It was not a slow day but one long to be remembered by the men. During a business meeting at which the honorable, James A. Rhodes, Mayor of the city of Columbus issued a proclamation claiming Saturday, Aug. 23rd as "83rd Inf. Div. Day". During this meeting Col. Robert York, an honored guest, appeared in uniform and was given a tremendous ovation. Later in the afternoon a very impressive memorial service was held on the state's Capitol Grounds. An impressive ritual was conducted by Wm. Schuman (Div. Art.) with the Honorable Governor Lausche aiding the past pres. Walter H. Edwards, Jr. (331) in displaying a wreath in memory of our buddies left behind. Friday night the members were the guest of the association at a stag party with free eats and drinks.

Saturday was election of officers and well wishing to the new administration, for a successful and prosperous year.

Saturday night was the night of nights. A banquet and dinner in the Marine room. At the banquet we had the pleasure of the honorable Gov. Lausche, Governor of the state of Ohio, whose patch we so proudly wore. Not to mention the fact that we had as our Honor guests two former members of our division. Col. Robert York and Col. Edwin B. Crabill (Buckshot), both of whom gave a very impressive reminiscence of past 83rd days which brought back many memories.

After the banquet there was a floor show and dancing till the wee hours of the morning.

The convention as a whole was a great success and, I am sure, long to be remembered by those who attended. Yes, you can sit back and reminisce but won't you bear in mind that "ONCE AN 83RD MAN, ALWAYS AN 83RD MAN, and being one, YOUR place is with us. So won't you plan now to join us in Cleveland, Ohio, August 20, 21, 22, 1953. We'll be looking for you.

The President's Corner

By Leo Schneider

May I take this opportunity to gratefully acknowledge the fine honor bestowed upon me to serve this term as your president. It's a big job for an ex-yardbird!

During the past year, under the superb leadership of Walter H. Edwards, Jr. and Rocco Catalfamo, the ass'n staged a tremendous comeback. They inherited a SNAFU. Walter and Rocco with the aid of James Hanrahan and a few of the men, got together and arranged a mailing list endeavored to get several Thunderbolts printed and mailed. Concerning the past convention in Columbus their efforts were not in vain.

Since Walter handed the reins over to the new administration the situation is considerable brighter than when he took office. Rocco, with much persuasion, has again agreed to serve as Secretary-Treasurer. The financial status was poor but now we are again back in business. There is still much work ahead and it is imperative that we at least double our dues paying members. If we accomplish this nothing can prevent us from attaining our goal.

MEN—is it unreasonable to expect a thousand men, possibly more, to attend the August reunion in Cleveland, August 20, 21, 22, 1953?

Your newly elected officers and executive committee are hard at work to achieve continued success. We can't do this alone, we have exhausted our personal contacts. YOU AND YOU ALONE CAN FINISH THE JOB by contacting your buddies and have them join their association.

This, your association, is now functioning on a business like basis. A complete financial report is published in this issue, concerning all handling and disposition of funds for the fiscal period of August, 1951 to August, 1952. These books were recently audited by a certified public accountant and were found to be accurate.

The 83rd Association is your exclusive private club. To be eligible you must have worn the Black Triangle during a portion of your World War II service. It is of no consequence whatever, whether an ex-Thunderbolt is rich or poor; whether he is from east or west, North or south; there are no religious or political qualifications. Regular army or draftee; private or and we meet at the reunions we will general are one and the same in this your 83rd Infantry Division Association. When all our buddies are members have reached our ultimate goal,

We went through hell together; now let's get together and enjoy talking (with a highball in each hand) about it. Write or phone your buddies today, urge them to join the Assn., so that we won't lose contact with each other.

Division Headquarters . . .

Division Headquarters had nineteen members present at this reunion in Columbus. We can and WILL improve that figure next year in Cleveland and provided you men start now in planning to attend.

Doc Stovick has four more years of studying in the Benedictine Order at Richardton, N. D. and sends his regards to all . . . Bob Keim is expecting another addition to his family of four girls. He recently had as his guest Col. Harrell . . . The Lou Nolans are looking forward to the Dillons and Piepers joining them in attending a Minnesota football game this fall . . . Wendell Fry has a year to go before receiving his degree in Engineering at the University of Pittsburgh. Russell Hite, Division Headquarters reporter made a trip to Richmond, Va., to spend the weekend with Ray Flinn and the twosome took in a football game . . . Recently James Hanrahan combined business with pleasure and paid the Catalfamo's a visit in Pittsburgh.

Signal Chatter . . .

It is quite apparent that this unit as a whole cannot continue. Judging from the recent turnout in Columbus, in comparison with other reunions this company had a very sad and non-impressive showing. Is it possible that we have forgotten the meaning of comradeship? There was a time, however, when we were thrown together as a unit and Bernard Malecki thrived upon the meaning of this word. Of course, now things are a little different and all mutual ties have been forgotten. We just live and what these things have meant is now the thing of the past. This association, "your association", has been organized for this purpose. The chief purpose being, not to break these friendships, but to create new ones and bring each of us as close as we were when serving as a Division. Without your help we cannot succeed and will not continue to exist. Compare your convention roster with others that appear in this issue and derive your own conclusion.

Those attending the convention found that they had taken home with them many things. The main and utmost thing being that this association is now morally and basically sound, and will continue to prosper regardless of all past incidents. It has undoubtedly been proven by the response at this past convention. Your continued support is still badly needed, so please, fellows, make every effort to support THE THUNDERBOLT.

No information has been forwarded your reporter so therefore there is nothing more to report. If there is any news such as place of employment, promotions, engagements, marriages, etc. please forward and they will be published. Again, it is repeated, THE THUNDERBOLT is your means of communication.

331st Chit-Chat . . .

Another chapter has been written in the history of the 83rd Division Ass'n., the Columbus reunion was a success and the 331st helped to make it so with an impressive turnout. There were many familiar faces which have been showing every year and there were also many new ones. We need more new ones to double our number next year in Cleveland. IT'S UP TO YOU.

The 331st luncheon and meeting was a success. The ham dinner and American Calvados on every table was ample and enjoyed by all. At this meeting Robert Berstler was unanimously elected president of the 331st association for the term 1952-1953. The meeting brought out the suggestion that each man correspond with as many men as possible in his company letting them know their presence is wanted at future reunions. Each company will appoint a company correspondent. The man chosen should try to attain a complete and up to date roster of his company.

It will always be a pleasure to have our former CO, Col. Robert York, at our meetings. Col. York has been assigned a task in Singapore as Military Attache. Good luck Colonel. There will always be a reserved seat for you at our meetings and a warm spot in our hearts.

Manny Epstein attended this year. That's six times for Manny. There's no Association spirit lagging here. We saw photographs of his ultra-modern men's furnishings store on Long Island, of which Manny is the proud owner. We missed Russel Carver, Hqs. CO., this year. We'd like a snort with you in Cleveland. Lt. Col. C. M. Freudentorf is now army field forces Liaison officer at the army Chemical Center in Maryland. He was recently seen on the TV program "Break The Bank". Did you break it, Col? News has arrived that Ted Woronick of Meriden Conn. is no longer a bachelor. We're expecting to meet the little woman in Cleveland, Ted. That's it for now, men. Write a letter to a buddy TODAY.

329th Buckshooters . . .

LOOKING AHEAD—To this reporter's knowledge, all 329ers who attended the 6th Reunion of the 83rd Div. enjoyed it immensely. We had a good turnout, but we want a bigger attendance for the one coming up in Cleveland. Our Commander in Europe, Col. E. B. Crabill, gave a fine talk at the banquet of the convention, and most of us enjoyed renewing old acquaintances with him. Let's hope he is able to attend future reunions.

"WHISTLE-STOPPING" — Following the convention, Albert Bizzini, Gustine, Calif. visited F. Casile in New York, whereupon both drove to Wooster, Mass. to visit Arthur Ledoux. The trio then dropped in on Maurice Cristoforo in Boston and finally ended their "tour" in Jamaica Plain, Mass., where they were welcomed by William B. Conley and Francis Markums. All these men were formerly of Co. G.

BEND AN ELBOW — Col. Jules K. French, Jr. couldn't make the convention due to last minute commitments. He has invited ex-329ers—also ex-Thunderbolts—to drop in for a drink. He is stationed at Hdqrs., 6th Army, Presidio of San Francisco, Calif.

CLOSING SHOP—Since the 330th and 331st have organized into units I have been wondering whether or not the 329th should not do likewise. Drop a line to Assn. Hdqrs. and let me have your opinions . . . Look up your buddies and tell them what a good time you had in Columbus, and to meet you in Cleveland.

330th Latrine Rumors . . .

There is little to report at this date as we have had little correspondence from our men, but we feel sure that the next issues will be full of rumors as we are requesting each of you to do your bit and send us in news.

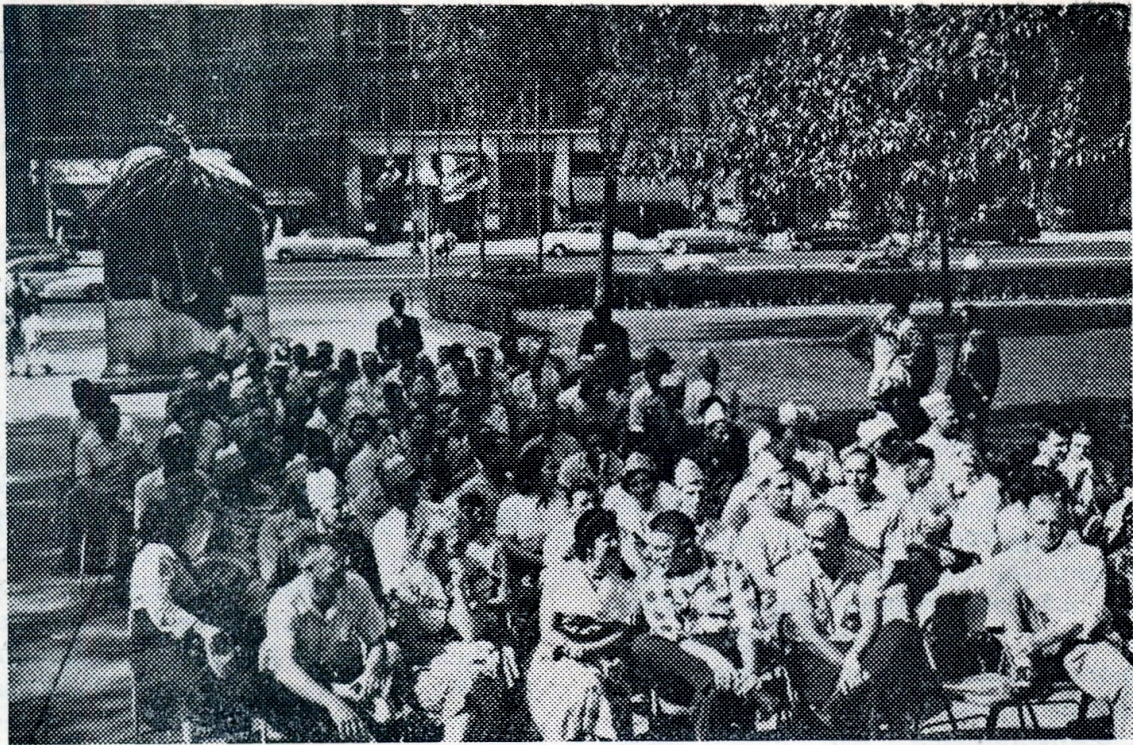

The past reunion was well represented by 330th men but we will double that next year if each of you plan now to attend in Cleveland, August 20, 21, 22, 1953.

At the past convention in Columbus, the 330th Inf. members present held a unit meeting and organized. All members present agreed to pay $1.00 to aid in the cost of correspondence. The following men were elected to office: Robert M. McIntyre (Co. C) Pres. Rochester, N. Y.; Frank G. Juruse (AT & CN) Sect.-Tres., Dorchester, Mass.; Larry Redmond (H) 1st Vice Pres., Havertown, Pa.; Henry Hine (M) 2nd Vice Pres., Pittsburgh, Pa.; Edward (Rosie) Casper (C) Sgt. At Arms, Utica, Ohio.

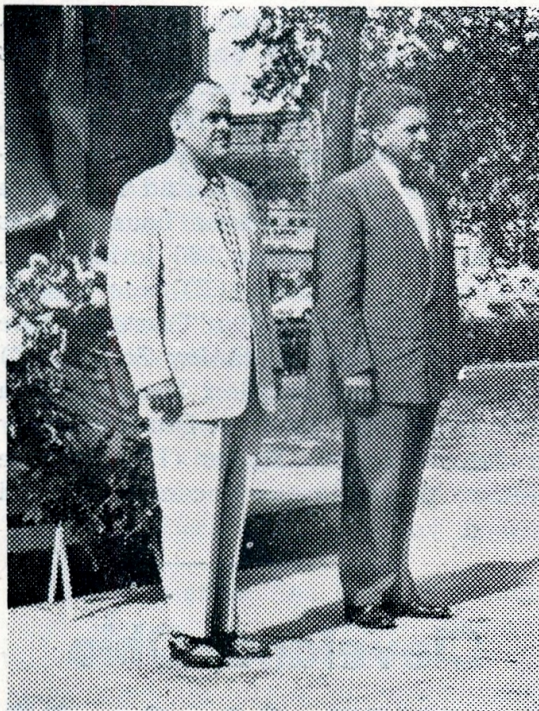

Following the organizational meeting members and wives had luncheon together.

Fred M. (Coe) Haney (E) 83rd Div. Vice Pres. is really on the ball. Has sent in five new memberships already. Nice going . . . Larry Redmond (H), Desk Sgt. Haverford Twp. Police, attended his first reunion and is now a working and enthusiastic booster. Has mailed out more than 300 letters . . . O. L. (Cookie) Cook (E) was unable to attend the Columbus "Carnage" due to family illness . . . Stanley Scliski (C) missed his first reunion but will join us in Cleveland, 1953 . . . Our sympathy to John (Junior) Krebs (Hqs) whose mother passed away recently. We all missed you Junior.

F. A. & Special Units . . .

As the Thunderbolt goes to press we have nothing to report about your buddies from Fa. Bn. & Sp. Units. More than 20 letters were mailed to men from the Fa. Bn. & Sp. Units and we received one Air Mail answer. Thanks Russell. Russell Davy of Btry C, 908th Fa. Bn. has sent us in what news he could. We are depending on each of you to get something in to us for the next issue of the paper. We here do not have the time to contact each man from the Fa. Bn. & Sp. Units. We have to depend on you as members to help make YOUR THUNDERBOLT something worth while. If each of you sent in just one news item the Fa. Bn. could have as large a column as any other Regt. Please help us. Get a note off to your buddies and let's us here know what the news is. Anything is news to the men. A new job, birth, wedding, anything we did not know about you years ago is news. Mail it today.

It's a new baby girl for the Ray Voraceks. Ray is doing a good job of making plans for the Cleveland Convention. (324th) . . . A new name has been added to the rosters—Louis Lesjak, 8th Drive N. E., New Philadelphia, Ohio. . . . It's a new baby for the Melvin Briggs (Btry B, 908th) of Sherrodsville, Ohio. Joe DeLuca is off again this year with his membership drive. Nice going Joe. He has given us 3 new members.

Convention Time is over for another year or so,
You missed the fun and comradeship if you didn't get to go.
It sure makes one feel great to see his buddies of the past,
Though some have changed in stature, that old spark will always last,

There was Johnnie, Bill, Pete and Tom, to mention just a few,
Jack and Les, George and Wes, they were there, too.
Co. A, Co. K, Headquarters, M and G,
Were all well represented as was good old Co. C.

For some it was the first Reunion they'd been able to attend,
To them we say "Glad to have you, hope you can come again."
Some also brought their wives along, they had a good time too,
Met new friends, had a shopping tour, took in a show or two.

On the agenda also was a banquet and a show,
Which, after our '50 debacle was as far as we could go.
We started out from scratch this year but we'll get progressively better,
If each and every one of you will send out just one letter.

To a friend or buddie close at hand whom you'd like to see again,
Tell him about the Reunion and say "I'll see you then."
I'm sure if he's reminded you can bet that he'll be there,
We "Thunderbolts" to see old friends will go most anywhere.

Say—It doesn't cost you much to join, little more than a cent a day,
The dues are just 4 (FOUR) bucks a year, so send it out today,
To 1435 Clark St. in good old Pittsburgh (21), Penna.
In any kind of envelope, White or Blue or Henna.

Convention Time is over and another year has past,
Convention Time is over but these friendships always last.
See you all in Cleveland, if at the time you're free,
At the 83rd Reunion in August, '53.
